

SECRET

SPOT COMMENTARY

CTA:	02 October 2000 1500 EDT Spot Comm 17
Milosevio	· Vows To Win Runoff Election
the oppos accused the Balkans a the respon their own	rare state television appearance today, FRY President Milosevic lashed out against ition and vowed to secure an election victory in the second round. Milosevic ne West of trying to use the opposition to establish a "puppet government" in the nd warned that those who take part in the opposition's "subversion" are taking on nsibility for "the abolition of their country's right to exist" and for "losing control of lives." Meanwhile, the regime is moving forward on plans to hold a second-round the or without the participation of the opposition.
•	The FRY President almost certainly intended to use the television appearance to demonstrate that he remains in control and to reestablish his credibility within the regime in the lead-up to Sunday's ballot. The opposition charged that Milosevic's speech was meant to threaten the Serbian people.
indicate the took to the including until Dem the legiting	n strikes and smaller rallies were staged today throughout Serbia. Press reports nat several thousand demonstrators in Nis, Novi Sad, Bor, Cacak, and Zrenjanin e streets, while several hundred to a few thousand workers and students from cities Leskovac, Krusevac, and Mladenovac vowed to boycott their jobs and schools occratic Opposition of Serbia (DOS) presidential candidate Kostunica is accepted as nate president. The DOS plans a five-hour general strike tomorrow, with a 24-hour ollow if Belgrade still refuses to recognize Kostunica's first round victory.
•	Most roads and bridges were paralyzed this morning in Belgrade until police broke up protesters' roadblocks using minimal force, according to press reports. Around 30,000 demonstrators marched through the capital city at the peak of today's opposition protest. Belgrade university students broke into the School of Electrical Engineering today to hand over an announcement of the general strike to their dean.
•	The miners strike in Kolubara continues and today expanded to the Kostolac mines. Press reports indicate that Kostunica was expected to show up at the picket line in Kolubara. Twelve thousand people demonstrated in Milosevic's home town of Pozaravec and 20,000 demonstrators in Novi Sad surrounded the local state-run Serbian Radio and Television (RTS) building and have broken into the premises, according to press reports.
Djindjic a or Thursd	nnounced today the "climax" of the opposition activity would occur on Wednesday ay, according to press reporting and called on the Serbian people to obstruct the repared by:	DCI Interagency Balkan Task Force. Comments and questions can be addressed to

SECRET

APPROVED FOR RELEASE□ DATE: 06-23-2010

and criticized Russia for being "too cautious" in helping the opposition resolve the sover the election results. Kostunica accused Moscow of being "indecisive" and rependanges that Washington is "indirectly helping Milosevic stay in power" by support indictment at the Hague for war crimes. • Kostunica is likely frustrated at Moscow's public decision to accept Be election results and its insistence that a second round is necessary. Ko said that the Russians "take one step forward and one step back" and "do a specific position on the situation in the FRY." • Despite Kostunica's public statements, the opposition today accepted Ru President Putin's offer to host talks on resolving the impasse, but the regyet to respond. The FRY Ambassador to Russia, Milosevic's brother, to he is not aware of the regime's reaction to Putin's offer to mediate, accompress reporting. Seselj Rethinks Plans to Bring Down Serbian Government Serbian Radical Party (SRS) leader Seselj over the weekend said that the FRY elections according to press reporting. • Meanwhile, president of the pro-Belgrade Montenegrin Socialist Nationa (SNP) Momir Bulatovic today said that the SNP supports Milosevic for it President in the second round, but stated that his party is ready to accept of the people," even if it is not the SNP's desired choice, according to preporting. RDB Chief Markovic Resignation Still Unconfirmed We still have seen no information to confirm recent press reports claiming that Miloreplaced Serbian State Security Chief Rade Markovic with FRY Ambassador to Mac Zoran Janackovic. Indeed, a FRY Embassy official in Macedonia today stated that Kostunica today publicly reaffirmed his commitment to boycott a runoff against Mi and criticized Russia for being "too cautious" in helping the opposition resolve the sover the election results. Kostunica accused Moscow of being "indecisive" and repcharges that Washington is "indirectly helping Milosevic stay in power" by support indictment at the Hague for war crimes. • Kostunica is likely frustrated at Moscow's public decision to accept Be election results and its insistence that a second round is necessary. Kosaid that the Russians "take one step forward and one step back" and "dea a specific position on the situation in the FRY." • Despite Kostunica's public statements, the opposition today accepted Rupresident Putin's offer to host talks on resolving the impasse, but the regy yet to respond. The FRY Ambassador to Russia, Milosevic's brother, to he is not aware of the regime's reaction to Putin's offer to mediate, accorpress reporting. Seselj Rethinks Plans to Bring Down Serbian Government Serbian Radical Party (SRS) leader Seselj over the weekend said that the FRY elections and the serbian Government, according to press reporting. • Meanwhile, president of the pro-Belgrade Montenegrin Socialist Nations (SNP) Momir Bulatovic today said that the SNP supports Milosevic for I President in the second round, but stated that his party is ready to accept of the people," even if it is not the SNP's desired choice, according to preporting. RDB Chief Markovic Resignation Still Unconfirmed We still have seen no information to confirm recent press reports claiming that Miloreplaced Serbian State Security Chief Rade Markovic with FRY Ambassador to Mar Coran Janackovic. Indeed, a FRY Embassy official in Macedonia today stated that Janackovic remains in Skopje, where he continues to perform his duties, according to	ba	alloting for the second round on 8 October.
Kostunica today publicly reaffirmed his commitment to boycott a runoff against Mi and criticized Russia for being "too cautious" in helping the opposition resolve the sover the election results. Kostunica accused Moscow of being "indecisive" and repcharges that Washington is "indirectly helping Milosevic stay in power" by support indictment at the Hague for war crimes. * Kostunica is likely frustrated at Moscow's public decision to accept Be election results and its insistence that a second round is necessary. Ko said that the Russians "take one step forward and one step back" and "do a specific position on the situation in the FRY." * Despite Kostunica's public statements, the opposition today accepted Ru President Putin's offer to host talks on resolving the impasse, but the regy yet to respond. The FRY Ambassador to Russia, Milosevic's brother, to he is not aware of the regime's reaction to Putin's offer to mediate, accorpress reporting. Seselj Rethinks Plans to Bring Down Serbian Government Serbian Radical Party (SRS) leader Seselj over the weekend said that the FRY electibasically "irregular," but stepped back somewhat from his earlier claims that he wordown the Serbian Government, according to press reporting. * Meanwhile, president of the pro-Belgrade Montenegrin Socialist Nations (SNP) Momir Bulatovic today said that the SNP supports Milosevic for I President in the second round, but stated that his party is ready to accept of the people," even if it is not the SNP's desired choice, according to preporting. RDB Chief Markovic Resignation Still Unconfirmed We still have seen no information to confirm recent press reports claiming that Miloreplaced Serbian State Security Chief Rade Markovic with FRY Ambassador to Mar Zoran Janackovic. Indeed, a FRY Embassy official in Macedonia today stated that Janackovic remains in Skopje, where he continues to perform his duties, according to
and criticized Russia for being "too cautious" in helping the opposition resolve the sover the election results. Kostunica accused Moscow of being "indecisive" and repreharges that Washington is "indirectly helping Milosevic stay in power" by support indictment at the Hague for war crimes. • Kostunica is likely frustrated at Moscow's public decision to accept Be election results and its insistence that a second round is necessary. Ko said that the Russians "take one step forward and one step back" and "do a specific position on the situation in the FRY." • Despite Kostunica's public statements, the opposition today accepted Ru President Putin's offer to host talks on resolving the impasse, but the reg yet to respond. The FRY Ambassador to Russia, Milosevic's brother, to he is not aware of the regime's reaction to Putin's offer to mediate, accompress reporting. Seselj Rethinks Plans to Bring Down Serbian Government Serbian Radical Party (SRS) leader Seselj over the weekend said that the FRY elections according "irregular," but stepped back somewhat from his earlier claims that he wordown the Serbian Government, according to press reporting. • Meanwhile, president of the pro-Belgrade Montenegrin Socialist Nationa (SNP) Momir Bulatovic today said that the SNP supports Milosevic for a President in the second round, but stated that his party is ready to accept of the people," even if it is not the SNP's desired choice, according to preporting. RDB Chief Markovic Resignation Still Unconfirmed We still have seen no information to confirm recent press reports claiming that Miloreplaced Serbian State Security Chief Rade Markovic with FRY Ambassador to Mar Zoran Janackovic. Indeed, a FRY Embassy official in Macedonia today stated that Janackovic remains in Skopje, where he continues to perform his duties, according to	K	ostunica Critical of US and Moscow's Position on FRY Elections
election results and its insistence that a second round is necessary. Ko said that the Russians "take one step forward and one step back" and "do a specific position on the situation in the FRY." • Despite Kostunica's public statements, the opposition today accepted Ru President Putin's offer to host talks on resolving the impasse, but the reg yet to respond. The FRY Ambassador to Russia, Milosevic's brother, to he is not aware of the regime's reaction to Putin's offer to mediate, accompress reporting. Seselj Rethinks Plans to Bring Down Serbian Government Serbian Radical Party (SRS) leader Seselj over the weekend said that the FRY election basically "irregular," but stepped back somewhat from his earlier claims that he would down the Serbian Government, according to press reporting. • Meanwhile, president of the pro-Belgrade Montenegrin Socialist National (SNP) Momir Bulatovic today said that the SNP supports Milosevic for Ith President in the second round, but stated that his party is ready to accept of the people," even if it is not the SNP's desired choice, according to preporting. RDB Chief Markovic Resignation Still Unconfirmed We still have seen no information to confirm recent press reports claiming that Milo replaced Serbian State Security Chief Rade Markovic with FRY Ambassador to Mac Zoran Janackovic. Indeed, a FRY Embassy official in Macedonia today stated that Janackovic remains in Skopje, where he continues to perform his duties, according to	ar ov ch	ostunica today publicly reaffirmed his commitment to boycott a runoff against Milos d criticized Russia for being "too cautious" in helping the opposition resolve the stal ver the election results. Kostunica accused Moscow of being "indecisive" and repeat larges that Washington is "indirectly helping Milosevic stay in power" by supporting dictment at the Hague for war crimes.
President Putin's offer to host talks on resolving the impasse, but the reg yet to respond. The FRY Ambassador to Russia, Milosevic's brother, to he is not aware of the regime's reaction to Putin's offer to mediate, according to press reporting. eselj Rethinks Plans to Bring Down Serbian Government erbian Radical Party (SRS) leader Seselj over the weekend said that the FRY election assically "irregular," but stepped back somewhat from his earlier claims that he would now the Serbian Government, according to press reporting. • Meanwhile, president of the pro-Belgrade Montenegrin Socialist National (SNP) Momir Bulatovic today said that the SNP supports Milosevic for the President in the second round, but stated that his party is ready to accept of the people," even if it is not the SNP's desired choice, according to present the properting. DB Chief Markovic Resignation Still Unconfirmed Ve still have seen no information to confirm recent press reports claiming that Miloseplaced Serbian State Security Chief Rade Markovic with FRY Ambassador to Macoran Janackovic. Indeed, a FRY Embassy official in Macedonia today stated that anackovic remains in Skopje, where he continues to perform his duties, according to		 Kostunica is likely frustrated at Moscow's public decision to accept Belgr election results and its insistence that a second round is necessary. Kostu said that the Russians "take one step forward and one step back" and "do no a specific position on the situation in the FRY."
Serbian Radical Party (SRS) leader Seselj over the weekend said that the FRY election basically "irregular," but stepped back somewhat from his earlier claims that he would down the Serbian Government, according to press reporting. • Meanwhile, president of the pro-Belgrade Montenegrin Socialist National (SNP) Momir Bulatovic today said that the SNP supports Milosevic for its President in the second round, but stated that his party is ready to accept of the people," even if it is not the SNP's desired choice, according to present the properties. RDB Chief Markovic Resignation Still Unconfirmed We still have seen no information to confirm recent press reports claiming that Miloseplaced Serbian State Security Chief Rade Markovic with FRY Ambassador to Mac Zoran Janackovic. Indeed, a FRY Embassy official in Macedonia today stated that Janackovic remains in Skopje, where he continues to perform his duties, according to		 Despite Kostunica's public statements, the opposition today accepted Russi President Putin's offer to host talks on resolving the impasse, but the regime yet to respond. The FRY Ambassador to Russia, Milosevic's brother, today he is not aware of the regime's reaction to Putin's offer to mediate, according press reporting.
 basically "irregular," but stepped back somewhat from his earlier claims that he would down the Serbian Government, according to press reporting. Meanwhile, president of the pro-Belgrade Montenegrin Socialist National (SNP) Momir Bulatovic today said that the SNP supports Milosevic for it President in the second round, but stated that his party is ready to accept of the people," even if it is not the SNP's desired choice, according to prereporting. RDB Chief Markovic Resignation Still Unconfirmed We still have seen no information to confirm recent press reports claiming that Milo replaced Serbian State Security Chief Rade Markovic with FRY Ambassador to Mac Zoran Janackovic. Indeed, a FRY Embassy official in Macedonia today stated that Janackovic remains in Skopje, where he continues to perform his duties, according to 	Se	selj Rethinks Plans to Bring Down Serbian Government
(SNP) Momir Bulatovic today said that the SNP supports Milosevic for I President in the second round, but stated that his party is ready to accept of the people," even if it is not the SNP's desired choice, according to pre reporting. RDB Chief Markovic Resignation Still Unconfirmed We still have seen no information to confirm recent press reports claiming that Milo replaced Serbian State Security Chief Rade Markovic with FRY Ambassador to Mac Zoran Janackovic. Indeed, a FRY Embassy official in Macedonia today stated that Janackovic remains in Skopje, where he continues to perform his duties, according to	ba	sically "irregular," but stepped back somewhat from his earlier claims that he would
We still have seen no information to confirm recent press reports claiming that Milo replaced Serbian State Security Chief Rade Markovic with FRY Ambassador to Mac Zoran Janackovic. Indeed, a FRY Embassy official in Macedonia today stated that Janackovic remains in Skopje, where he continues to perform his duties, according to		 Meanwhile, president of the pro-Belgrade Montenegrin Socialist Nationalis (SNP) Momir Bulatovic today said that the SNP supports Milosevic for FR President in the second round, but stated that his party is ready to accept the of the people," even if it is not the SNP's desired choice, according to press reporting.
replaced Serbian State Security Chief Rade Markovic with FRY Ambassador to Mac Zoran Janackovic. Indeed, a FRY Embassy official in Macedonia today stated that Janackovic remains in Skopje, where he continues to perform his duties, according t	R	DB Chief Markovic Resignation Still Unconfirmed
	re Zo Ja	placed Serbian State Security Chief Rade Markovic with FRY Ambassador to Macedoran Janackovic. Indeed, a FRY Embassy official in Macedonia today stated that nackovic remains in Skopje, where he continues to perform his duties, according to p
		· · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · ·